

Josceline Fenton

For reasons of privacy and security online, some parts of this CV have been omitted or hidden.

PROFILE

Enthusiastic, highly literate student [REDACTED] looking to start a career in the graphic design industry with a keen interest in media, illustration and advertising. Developed knowledge of a variety of media and styles including computer based design. Experience and ability to design, create and establish websites, with a high standard of keyboard, computer and word-processing skills. Familiarity with database management and spreadsheet packages used in ICT coursework at AS and A2 level, with some knowledge of macros and visual basic coding. Proven ability in languages including French and self-taught Japanese.

SKILLS

- Self-taught website design using HTML, made use of in creating and designing www.mildtarantula.com to showcase computer based artwork.
- Began learning Japanese in 2003 and took Level 4 in the Japanese Proficiency Test 2006 with grade of 363/400. Knowledge of around 300 character meanings and readings. Ability to read, write and engage in limited conversation in both formal and casual Japanese.
- Ability to create illustrations to specifications, developed in creating illustrations for www.fakehair.net and “Anthologie de BDs Britanniques Contemporaines” published by the International Manga Association.
- Particular Achievement: Short illustrated stories published in “The Girly Comic” Issues 10 and 13 and cover illustration for Issue 13. Featured artist in the free, French magazine “BD Zine #21”, including an interview, four page comic strip and illustrations.
- Particular Achievement: Self-published the graphic novel “Circle” in 2008, with over 130 copies sold. Stocked at specialist comic stores “Gosh” and “Orbital Comics” and available online.

EDUCATION

1995 - 2001 [REDACTED]

2001 - 2008 [REDACTED]

2008 - 2009 Wimbledon College of Art (School of Foundation), London

Higher: Foundation Diploma in Art and Design (Pending)

A2: Fine Art (A), Graphic Design (A - Top 10 in the country with a mark of 600/600), ICT (A)

AS: English Literature (A), Fine Art (A), Graphic Design (A), ICT (A)

GCSE: English (A*), English Literature (A), Maths (A*), Physics (A*), French (A*), Art (A*), Graphic Products (A*), ICT (A*), Classical Civilisation (A*)

VOLUNTARY WORK

Sixty Plus, [REDACTED]:

Visiting an elderly person once a week, improving communication skills and providing the elderly with company.

London Underground Comics, Camden Lock Market:

Helping to sell small-press, self-published comic books alongside other comic creators at the London Underground Comics stall, run by Oli Smith, to Camden Lock Market visitors.
